SUNAK GOVT STARES AT CRUSHING DEFEAT AT U.K. GENERAL ELECTIONS

Voting was underway across the UK on Thursday in a general election widely expected to hand the opposition Labour party a landslide victory

LABOUR SET FOR ITS BIGGEST VICTORY: SURVEY

Voting began at 7.00 am (local time) in over 40,000 polling booths. Labour is projected to win its first general election since 2005, with a slew of election-eve polls all forecasting its biggest-ever win. The vote comes as the Tory government is facing public anger over the cost-of-living crisis and its own chaotic rule that has seen five PMs hold office in 14 years | P12

TORIES MAY LOSE MORE THAN 200 SEATS

- Of the 650 seats in the fray, the winning party needs to get at least 326 seats. The Tories had 365 seats in the outgoing Parliament. But they are projected to win record low of less than 150 seats this time
- Labour's Keir Starmer promised a "decade of national renewal" if his party wins. Sunak urged people not to vote for "tax-raising" Labour

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

A mass of humanity poured into the streets of Mumbai before converging at the Wankhede to give a welcome befitting kings and queens. The victorious Indian team, who had landed in the city in the evening after sharing stories of how they won the World Cup with Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi in the morning, went on an open top bus parade from Nariman Point to the stadium in Indian cricket's headquarters.

After reaching the stadium, they made their way inside the playing field to rapturous applause as the venue eschewed every sinew to convey their thanks to a team that had won the T20 World Cup in Barbados on Saturday.

Celebrating a sporting victory is always special and pure. India Champions were written on the jerseys. The 15 men who did it wore them with pride. Back in India, 'India Champions' were etched in the hearts of 1.4 billion people since Saturday. Mumbai, like its name, saw the maximum of sports celebration, immersed in the feeling of euphoria and excitement almost resembling hysteria (in the positive sense), fans forgot about daily strife for a while. Mobile phones were out and captured every angle possible.

The Marine Drive had hardly any space to stand. It was surreal. It was magical. The journey from the West Indies had its share of drama too. India managed to reach New Delhi through a chartered flight after hurricanes disrupted their travel plans. The non-stop Air India flight that brought the team home was rechristened AIC24WC — Air India Champions 24 World Cup. The Vistara flight that flew the team from New Delhi to Mumbai was called UK1845 (jersey number of Rohit Sharma and Virat Kohli).

The victory parade started late. But that did not deter thousands who thronged the Wankhede where the team congregated for one final show. Rahul Dravid delivered his final speech as coach; Virat wore his T20 jersey for India one last time and Rohit Sharma was eloquent. Along with them were the India's, nay the world's finest T20 players including that national treasure Jasprit Bumrah, marauding Suryakumar Yadav and all others as well as the support staff. Months after booing him, Wankhede chanted Hardik, Hardik too. Sport is after all a great leveller. MORE ON P15

Six arrested over Hathras stampede

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

THE Uttar Pradesh police on Thursday said they have arrested six sevadars of preacher Bhole Baba alias Narayan Sakar Hari alias Suraj Pal Jatav, in connection with the stampede at a prayer meet at Hathras that killed 121 people on Tuesday. "Four men and two women have been arrested in connection with the unfortunate incident. They are all members of the organising committee and worked as sevadars," IG Aligarh range Shalabh Mathur told a press meet. He said the arrested persons were responsible for crowd management. "They used to manage crowd control independently and would not allow the administration to tackle the situation," he added.

The arrested are Ram Ladaite Yadav, Upendra Yadav, Megh Singh, Manju Yadav, Manju Devi, and Mukesh Kumar. However, the main accused in the FIR, mukhya sevadar Dev Prakash Madhukar — an engineer with the UP Panchayati Raj department — is still at large. Sub-registrar transfers only by counselling

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka cabinet on Thursday took a decision to transfer sub-registrars only through counselling, with immediate effect, in an apparent strategy to move out officers who have been working in sub-registrar offices in and around Bengaluru for many years. Bengaluru gives a lion's share of revenue to the state's exchequer.

CABINET DECISION ON ULB ELECTIONS

The cabinet has decided to drop one of the recommendations of the Justice K Bhaktavatsala Commission of bringing all urban and local body polls under the control of Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms (DPAR). The panel, set up to study the political representation of the Backward Classes, has submitted its report to the government | P4

Counselling will apply to those who had served for five years in the past eight years in Bangalore Metropolitan Region Development Authority (BMRDA) jurisdiction, and those who served for four years in the past five years in the 10 city corporation limits outside BMRDA in taluks. FDAs who worked for over five years in the same place will be affected. The counselling should be concluded by August 10, 2024, by relaxing transfer guidelines issued on June 25, 2024.

There are 257 sub-registrar offices across the state, of which 51 come under BMRDA jurisdiction in Bengaluru City, Bengaluru Rural and Ramanagara districts.

BBMP contractors to stop works from July 8 over dues

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

CIVIC works under way in Bengaluru City are likely to grind to a halt from July 8, with the BBMP Contractors Association deciding to go on protest, citing non-release of payments by the Palike. The association members have alleged that payments to the tune of Rs 1,700 crore due to them, have been pending with the BBMP for over 24 months now. Accordingly, all ward-level works, including road construction, white-topping, lake development, and tasks related to stormwater drains, will be affected.

Speaking to TNIE, contractors association president Manjunath KT said, "We have repeatedly urged BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath to clear our pending bills. However, we have not received any concrete reply from him, compelling us to halt our work from July 8." Manjunath claimed that despite the civic body having the required funds, it has not cleared their pending bills. Making scathing allegations of bribery against Palike officials, Manjunath stated, "BBMP engineers have cleared bills for the works carried out two-and-half years ago. They have cleared the bills of only those who grease their palms and have kept the bills of other contractors, who refuse to pay bribes, on hold. For some contractors, 75 per cent of the bills have been cleared, while the remaining 25 per cent is kept on hold, with the engineers clearing them only if they are bribed." P2

English, Kannada should go hand-in-hand: HC

Says choice of language to be used in governmental affairs is a matter of policy, convenience, practicality

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

OBSERVING that there should be a blend of local and global language in running the government machinery, the Karnataka High Court said which language should be used in governmental affairs is a matter of policy, convenience and practicality.

While Kannada, which is a local language, has to be promoted and given importance, that itself cannot be a justification for the court to direct the state government and its departments to use Kannada language, the court said while dismissing a public interest litigation filed by a social worker seeking direction to the state government, including the Lokayukta, to use Kannada language at all levels and in all correspondences.

A division bench of Chief Justice N V Anjaria and Justice K V Aravind passed the order while dismissing the petition filed by Gurunath Vadde from Bidar. The petitioner's counsel submitted that in rural areas, only Kannada is understood by the locals.

The court, however, said there is no denying, as was rightly submitted by the government advocate, that there has been extensive use of Kannada language in governmental affairs, correspondences and other communications.

"Wherever it is necessary, the use of the English language in addition to Kannada cannot be disbanded," the court said adding, "Judicial pronouncements, law reports, statute books, important notifications and out-of-state or overseas correspondence are all in English language. There should be a requisite blend of local and global language in the running of government affairs."

The court also stated that Kannada language may be endeared, but at the same time, the utility of the English language should not be overlooked or discarded. "English is an official language for use in the High Court under the constitution. There can be no universal formula as to whether one language should only be used in governmental affairs. At local levels, however, it is hoped that the government and the officers as far as possible, may use, promote and give prominence to Kannada language to subserve the culture and the people of Karnataka. It cannot be, but, a universal phenomenon," the court observed.

State govt looks at public fin firms to go ahead with PRR

Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar at a meeting with officials of various civic agencies on Thursday evening | EXPRESS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

WITH the third round of tendering for the Rs 27,000-crore Peripheral Ring Road (PRR) project of the Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) cancelled too, the state government is now considering implementing the project with the assistance of public sector finance companies -- Housing and Urban Development Corporation Ltd (HUDCO) or REC Ltd. This proposal was discussed during a meeting held by Deputy Chief Minister D K Shivakumar with officials of civic agencies on Thursday evening. He took stock of works undertaken in the past few months and the developmental plans for Bengaluru, including the construction of a skydeck.

These companies have already conveyed their interest in giving loans to meet the land acquisition cost, which stands at a whopping Rs 21,000 crore.

An official, who attended the meeting, told TNIE that the idea was mooted by the finance department so that the 73-km project can go ahead somehow. "The BDA has not received many bids for the PRR project in the three rounds of tendering and the recent bid by the Kenyan firm too stands cancelled as they submitted bogus documents. The option being considered now is to make the BDA itself implement the project with financial assistance from HUDCO or REC to fund the land acquisition cost. For the project construction cost, JAICA had already given its 'in principle' approval for a loan up to Rs 4,500 crore long ago," the official said.

Meanwhile, addressing the media after the meeting, Shivakumar asked why they should include Ramanagara or Channapatna into Bengaluru. "Ramanagara will remain wherever it is. So will Channapatna, Kanakapura and Magadi," he said.

To question on whether the concept of a Greater Bengaluru is to divide BBMP, Shivakumar said the concept doesn't mean that the city will be split. "The master plan related to many developmental works related to Bengaluru is ready. I will give a presentation to Chief Minister Siddaramaiah next week," he said.

Now, FSSAI to collect pickle samples for tests

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

AFTER the ban on artificial colours in kebabs, gobi manchurian and pani puri and crackdown on the sale of unhygienic shawarma, the Food Safety and Standard Authority of India (FSSAI) may soon test pickle samples following several complaints.

An FSSAI official explained that despite pickles being consumed in small quantities, regulation is essential to ensure safety. "Testing is necessary to detect any harmful chemicals, such as artificial colours, and to assess the quality of raw materials used. Pickling methods with some ingredients, like using poor quality vinegar solutions, can lead to certain health consequences," the official said.

The official also mentioned that analysis of pani puri samples is still going on, and the comparative results from a few samples are yet to pinpoint in what quantities chemicals are present.

Earlier, FSSAI had informed TNIE that the regulatory body will collect samples of sweets ahead of festivals. The official, however, mentioned that they have not yet initiated the sampling process.

Crackdown on bike taxis from today

Private transport operators protest outside the office of the Commissioner for Transport and Road Safety in Bengaluru on Thursday | ALLEN EGENUSE J

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

AFTER the Federation of Karnataka State Private Transport Associations' protest on Thursday, the state transport department has formed a team to crack down on bike taxis operating in Bengaluru from Friday onwards. The department has formed 11 teams across RTOs in the city.

The federation has threatened to call for a bandh if the state transport department fails to fulfil the promises it made, which includes banning of bike taxis, e-bike taxis and white board taxis. Last September, more than 32 auto, cab, private bus and school bus associations protested and observed a Bengaluru bandh, and withdrew their protest after the state government agreed to fulfil a majority of their demands.

A protest broke out on Thursday afternoon when federation members tried to meet Transport Commissioner Yogesh at the Shanthinagar office, urging him to enforce the promises the department had made. Police stopped the members at the building entrance. Hundreds of auto and cab drivers sat in protest outside the office and shouted slogans against the transport department. After some time, the members were allowed to met the transport commissioner and hand over a memorandum.

Nataraj Sharma, nominated president of the federation, told TNIE, "There is no provision to operate bike taxis in the state. The state government, which came up with a policy to allow operation of e-bike taxis, withdrew it early this year citing security concerns. Despite this, we see hundreds of white board vehicles linked to private companies like Rapido, operating illegally."

We urged the transport department to take action against illegal bike taxis, and 11 teams have been set up across the city to crack down on e-bike taxis and other bike taxis operating illegally from Friday, Sharma added.

Other demands of the federation include implementing 'one city, one fare' order, issuing permits to school cabs, vans and buses, ensuring that private cab aggregators charge only 5 per cent commission, and price regulation of the vehicle tracking and location device. Federation members said the transport commissioner has promised to fulfil all their demands within a week.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka government has joined hands with Meta Inc to train over one lakh teachers and 10 lakh students across the state in digital safety, and augmented reality and virtual reality (AR-VR) by 2025.

The initiative, called the Digital Nagarik and AR-VR Skills Programme, was inaugurated by for IT, BT and Science and Technology Minister Priyank Kharge on Thursday.

Karnataka, the first state in India to collaborate with Meta on such an initiative, signed a Letter of Intent in November 2023, entering into a two-year partnership to promote digital education and online safety for students. The programme will provide digital awareness training to school and PU students aged 18 to 24. Meta will also train and deploy master trainers, who will train students in digital safety and AR-VR skills.

The initiative will cover 100 colleges and universities across the state. The training will focus on digital safety and awareness. The first phase of implementation will cover Bengaluru, Mysuru, Kalaburagi, Belagavi and Dakshin Kannada with the remaining districts to be included in the next phase.

Emphasising the importance of the initiative, Kharge said, "This campaign is not just about teaching our children how to create strong passwords or how to recognise phishing scams – it is about instilling a mindset of vigilance and responsibility that will stay with them for life," Kharge added.

The Digital Nagarik Programme features workshops, seminars and hands-on activities. The workshops will be conducted in both Kannada and English.

As many as 500 participants from across the state, including nodal officers from the departments of School Education, PU Board, Higher Education, and teachers from government schools who will serve as master trainers, took part in the event.

Following the launch, a 60-minute interactive training session was conducted for key officials from the nodal departments, to equip them with the necessary skills and knowledge to navigate and leverage the rapidly evolving technological landscape effectively.

05th July: Let's take a look at today's numerology. It's the 5th, so today has a the quality of 'fiveness'. Specialists in this ancient art would say that it's a point at which all enterprises and initiatives, which have reached a suitable stage, are ready for a creative burst. Some people might even end up back where they started, though!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
It's time for a spot of shopping, especially if you're spending other people's money! It's actually an important moment to choose between financial security and a venture which could be a risk. But don't be hasty, for there might still be further details waiting to come to light.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
A partner has as much will-power as you, if not more. So, if you should feel inclined to enter into a trial of strength you will have to realise that, however well you have done so far, you could risk everything you have gained. A few simple safeguards should do the trick.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Don't expect to be let off the hook today, or tomorrow for that matter. Do yourself a favour and put rumours and suspicions to one side, concentrating on the here and now, and what you can do to improve the world for everyone. You can only gain if people see you putting others first.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Children and younger relations demand extra time, but you may have difficulty keeping all the emotional balls in the air at the same moment, especially if friends also require your support and sustenance. You might have to make some difficult choices - and soon.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
You've got some bright financial ideas, so with the right advice you could do very well indeed. The one thing you must realise is that partners are essential to the fulfilment of your plans. Plus, don't take risks with your emotional security or throw away goodwill just when you need it most.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You may now be tempted to join in the fray, but before you dabble in partners' disputes and arguments between colleagues, be warned that you may have to take some flak of your own. However, if others are honest, they'll admit to benefiting from your breadth of vision.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
It's not what you want that matters, but what you can afford. Face up to those hard questions, like what you're working for, what's it all worth, and are you being paid enough? If the answer to the last is 'no', do something about it! There are many ways to increase your income and cut your spending.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You may well imagine that you were completely right about the past and are utterly correct about the future. Confidence is one thing, a complete lack of self-doubt is another, and it could be useful now to question your emotional priorities. You don't want to blunder into a brick-wall!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
About the only thing you can do is be as philanthropic and charitable as you can - and provide a valuable back-up for other people. Put unstinting effort into improving the quality of life for partners, and you'll avoid certain pitfalls arising out of your past actions.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Children or younger relations should take pride of place in family matters. For your own benefit you should take a leaf out of their book and resolve to be still more youthful and young at heart in the future. After all, you're as young as you feel - in theory!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
A professional contest is about to begin. Even for those of you not at work, a long-term ambition is now coming to a turning-point, and you will have to decide whether to opt out or re-double your efforts. A community project will soon pay dividends.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
What is difficult for other people could be decidedly favourable for you. However, if you should think it is possible to cash in on anyone else's misfortune, there's a chance that you could end up sharing it. Stick to what suits you best - sincerity and integrity.

Fever clinics to be set up in dengue hotspots

Medical officers directed to visit schools

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

WITH dengue cases on the rise, the state health department on Thursday mandated the establishment of fever clinics in areas reporting a high number of cases, across Karnataka.

In a video conference with Deputy Commissioners, CEOs and local corporation officials in Bengaluru, Health Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao emphasized the importance of early dengue diagnosis to ensure effective treatment and prevent fatalities.

Rao instructed officials to identify dengue hotspots, and those with fever symptoms in these areas must undergo immediate dengue testing. He directed district administrations to ramp up public awareness campaigns and highlighted that while dengue can be treated if diagnosed early, delays in treatment can lead to fatalities, which should be avoided at all costs.

The minister instructed ASHA workers to conduct door-to-door visits, and medical officers to visit schools to educate children about dengue through science teachers. Local organisations were also instructed to prioritize the destruction of mosquito larvae whenever detected.

The minister called for the publication of district-wise dengue case numbers, and recommended that all departments, including the education department, spend Fridays on the field, focusing on dengue prevention. He urged district-level officials to set aside at least an hour for dengue prevention activities.

Gundu Rao also stressed the need for vigilance against the Zika virus, transmitted by the aedes mosquito. With a suspected Zika case in Shivamogga that is yet to be confirmed, the minister urged health officials to remain on high alert. He pointed out the necessity for precautions since Zika has been detected in Pune.

AT a time when dengue cases are increasing day-by-day in the district, a community health officer, Dr Nagendra (32), died from dengue in Mysuru district on Thursday. Dr Nagendra, suffering from high fever, tested positive for dengue and was hospitalised recently. However, he could not recover and succumbed.

Since the district has 479 dengue cases, hostel students are advised to use mosquito nets and people are told not to neglect fever and visit the nearest primary health centre or general hospitals to get the dengue test done. District Health officer Kumaraswamy said the stagnation of water in tyres, pits, and construction sites is breeding mosquitoes. He said they have directed health department staff to visit houses and destroy mosquito larvae. He said that they have ensured that sufficient fluids are in primary health centres, general hospitals to treat the patients. Clarifying that the dengue-positive cases have come down from 17 to 9 per cent in the district, he said they will create awareness advising people with severe headaches, vomiting, and joint pain to visit the hospital.

In Mandya, Deputy Commissioner Kumar directed health staff to identify localities with the highest dengue cases and make it a point to visit to create awareness. The district has recorded 189 cases and municipalities and panchayats are directed to take precautions.

JUSTICE VEERAPPA IS NEW UPALOKAYUKTA

YATHIRAJU @ Bengaluru

FORMER judge of Karnataka High Court, Justice B Veerappa, known as 'Judge of the Common Man', has been appointed the Upalokayukta of the state. On Thursday, Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot appointed Justice Veerappa as Upalokayukta, following which the state government issued a notification. He is likely to take oath on Saturday.

The post of Upalokayukta was vacant for almost two years, after the then Upalokayukta Justice BS Patil became Lokayukta in June 2022. Abolition of the Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB), established by the then Siddaramaiah-led Congress government, in March 2016, and restoring the powers of the Prevention of Corruption Act with the Lokayukta, is a feather in the cap for Justice Veerappa, who headed the Division Bench that delivered the verdict in August 2022.

The very same Siddaramaiah government recommended Justice Veerappa's name for Upalokayukta after consulting the Chief Justice of Karnataka High Court, the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, the Chairman of Legislative Council and the Leaders of Opposition in both Houses of the Legislature. Accepting it, the Governor appointed Justice Veerappa as Upalokayukta.

He had set a new record in the country by taking steps to dispose of the highest number of pre-litigation and pending cases, as chairman of the Karnataka State Legal Services Authority (KSLSA). In all, 1.08 crore cases were disposed of through six Lok Adalats during his tenure. He was instrumental as chairman of KSLSA in the state government declaring a 50-per cent rebate on traffic fines, which fetched crores of rupees in revenue to the state exchequer.

Born on June 1, 1961, Justice Veerappa hails from Nagadenahalli village of Srinivasapura taluk in Kolar district. After completing his LLB, he practised in the High Court of Karnataka in 1988. Later, he served as government advocate from 1995 to 2015. He was appointed as an Additional Judge of the High Court on January 2, 2015, and permanent judge on December 30, 2016. He retired in June 2023.

Bengaluru Rural MP Dr CN Manjunath, accompanied by his wife Dr Anusuya and former PM HD Deve Gowda, meets Union minister JP Nadda in New Delhi recently

Dr Manjunath writes to Nadda, seeks polytrauma centre at NIMHANS

BENGALURU: Bengaluru Rural MP Dr CN Manjunath has written to Union Minister for Health and Family Welfare JP Nadda seeking approval for the establishment of a 300-bed polytrauma centre and post-graduate institute at the Bengaluru North campus of NIMHANS. In his letter after meeting Nadda in New Delhi recently, Dr Manjunath highlighted that initially, the outpatient footfall at the hospital was around 250 patients per day, which has now increased to 2,500. He mentioned that this has led to overcrowding and an inability to handle the patient load effectively, and emphasised the urgent need for immediate treatment during the golden hour for patients with multiple injuries. Highlighting that road traffic accidents are the fifth leading cause of deaths in India, with nearly 13% of fatalities attributed to such incidents, Dr Manjunath, during his meeting with Nadda, had emphasised the urgent need for immediate treatment. He stressed that due to space constraints and the lack of polytrauma services at NIMHANS, critically injured patients are often transferred to other hospitals, resulting in some fatalities during transit. He pointed out that most patients at NIMHANS come from poor socio-economic backgrounds and cannot afford expensive treatment in private hospitals, hence, the state government has already allotted about 37 acres of land for the centre. ENS

Darshan's judicial custody extended

ENS @Bengaluru

A city court on Thursday extended the judicial custody of Kannada actor Darshan Thoogudeepa, his associate P Pavithra Gowda and 15 others, who are accused in the Renukaswamy murder case, till July 18.

All the accused were produced before the 24nd Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate court through video conference from Bengaluru and Tumakuru prisons after their judicial custody ended on Thursday. Of the 17 accused, 13 are lodged in Bengaluru central prison in Parappana Agrahara and four in Tumakuru prison. The accused were arrested on charges of kidnapping and killing 33-year-old Renukaswamy of Chitradurga. The victim, who was a big fan of Darshan, had allegedly sent derogatory messages and obscene pictures to accused number 1 Pavithra Gowda.

Investigating officers have also found that Pavithra and Darshan as well as other accused Nandish, Pradosh, Karthik, Keshavmurthy and Nikhil Nayak had used SIM cards that were registered in the names of other persons. Those who had purchased the SIM cards and gave them to the accused have also landed in a soup. Investigators have also seized Rs 83.55 lakh from the accused. Officers will also grill those who gave money to the accused.

Meanwhile, Darshan's family members have requested the jail authorities to ensure that the actor and Pavithra do not meet inside the prison. They also requested the officials not to permit Pavithra's friends to meet him. A few days ago, one of Pavithra's friends had met Darshan in jail. Darshan's wife Vijayalakshmi has reportedly written to the police commissioner to set the records straight in police files as the commissioner, in his first press conference about the incident on June 11, had said that Pavithra was Darshan's wife.

Cong has no moral right to remain in power: Agarwal | Dissolve Assembly, call for polls: BSY challenges Siddu | BJP was ruling in 2021 when sites allotted: CM

MUDA row: Continue stir till Siddu resigns, BJP leader tells partymen

Charges politically motivated, says CM; BJP seeks CBI probe

Police detain BJP workers as they try to lay siege to MUDA office in Mysuru on Thursday | UDAYASHANKAR S

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

BJP National General Secretary, Radha Mohan Das Agarwal, who was party in-charge in Karnataka for the recent Lok Sabha elections, called upon party leaders and workers to continue to protest till Chief Minister Siddaramaiah resigns over the alleged irregularities in the allotment of sites by the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA).

Addressing the BJP state executive committee meeting in Bengaluru on Thursday, Agarwal told party members to take out protest rallies from the village to the state level, demanding Siddaramaiah's resignation. "Let us not keep quiet till Siddaramaiah resigns from his post," he said. Agarwal urged Karnataka BJP president BY Vijayendra to organise a protest rally in Mysuru under Mysuru-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar's leadership. "We will ensure Siddaramaiah steps down as CM. Till he resigns, our fight will not stop. BJP workers should not sit quietly. Let this message be clear and loud," he added.

Further, Agarwal said that Siddaramaiah should have taken moral responsibility and resigned as CM after the Congress' dismal performance in the recent Lok Sabha elections.

"Siddaramaiah should resign. Assembly polls should happen again in Karnataka, and the BJP will win and come back to power. The Congress government has no right to remain in power," he said.

He said the Congress government wooed voters using the guarantees, and despite that, people rejected them.

Agarwal attributed the BJP's victory in Karnataka in the LS polls to former CM BS Yediyurappa's leadership. "The entire nation is thankful to BJP workers in Karnataka for ensuring that the party won more seats in a Congress-ruled state," he added.

Yediyurappa challenges Siddaramaiah to call for polls

"If they (Congress) have the courage, let them resign and call for Assembly polls," senior BJP leader BS Yediyurappa challenged CM Siddaramaiah. He said the BJP will win at least 150 seats if the Assembly polls are held now. "People have rejected the guarantees. In districts represented by the CM and Deputy CM, the Congress lost badly in the Lok Sabha elections," he said. Yediyurappa also slammed the State Government for increasing prices of essential commodities for their "useless guarantees."

CM BRIEFS CABINET? HK PATIL SAYS NO

With the BJP dragging CM Siddaramaiah's name in the alleged irregularities in MUDA, he is reportedly to have brought the issue to the notice of his ministerial colleagues at the Cabinet meeting on Thursday, informed sources told TNIE. The CM reportedly told the ministers that all legal procedures were followed while sanctioning sites to his wife. Calling the charges by the BJP baseless, the CM said the process of allotting the sites as compensation took place when the BJP was in power in the state. However, Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister HK Patil denied that the MUDA and ST Corporation issues were discussed in the Cabinet.

CM not to attend party workers' meet

CM Siddaramaiah will not meet Congress party office-bearers and workers on Saturday, as scheduled. Both the CM and DyCM DK Shivakumar were to meet party workers at KPCC office in Bengaluru. However, an official communication from the DyCM's office said CM Siddaramaiah will not attend the meeting "due to unavoidable circumstances", and that Shivakumar will conduct the meeting.

WAR OF WORDS

Veerashaivas, Lingayats spar over Class 9 textbook on Basavanna

BANSY KALAPPA @Bengaluru

THE Class 9 Social Studies textbook on social reformer Basavanna has turned into a battleground, with Veerashaiva groups criticising the contents and Lingayat groups countering them, saying the contents are correct.

The book came in for criticism from Dr Mahanta Linga Shivacharya Swami of Akhila Bharata Veerashaiva Shivacharya Sansthan, on six issues. The first issue raised by Veerashaivas is that 30 Shivasharanas have used the term Veerashaiva 221 times in 142 vachanas. By contrast, only eight Shivasharanas have used the word Lingayat in 10 vachanas a mere 12 times. He said Basavanna had not used the term Lingayat even once in his vachanas.

Lingayat scholar and Vachana Sahitya researcher Veeranna Rajaur, and members of the Jagathika Lingayat Mahasabha countered this observation, saying the lesson was introduced after Basavanna was named the 'Cultural Icon of Karnataka', and that he is a 'vishwa manava' and not limited to any particular sect or religion. Activist Kumaranna Patil, member of the Jagathika Lingayat Mahasabha, agreed.

On the second point, Shivacharya Swami alleged that according to writer MM Kalaburgi, the vachanas that contain the word Veerashaiva are not acceptable. Kalburgi's statement that vachanas that contain Veerashaiva and those that refer to Vedas and Upanishads are Prakshapta, is false. To this, Rajaur said, "It has been established that they are unacceptable."

The third issue Shivacharya Swami pointed out is that Basavanna said he is a 'Nija Veerashaiva' while Rajaur said these are settled issues and there is no need to raise them now.

Shivacharya Swami alleged the textbook is wrong when it says that Basavanna did not have a guru, as the fourth issue. Rajaur countered it, saying Basavanna has said, "I have received the ishtalinga from a guru" and referred to Vachana 1364, 1366, 70 and 971 to support his claim.

Rajaur and Patil said, "It is good the words Lingayat and Veershaiva are not used. To understand better, they have used the terms Sharana, Aiyya and Linga, so can we say we follow the Linga Dharma or Sharana Dharma or Aiyya Dharma? Obviously we cannot. Basavanna has used the term Lingavantha or Linga Bhakta, but we need to understand the spirit behind the Vachanas."

While Shivacharya Swami siad ishtalinga was a practice that predates Basavanna, Rajaur, Patil and others said there is no need for a debate as it was started by Basavanna. There is no need to belittle Basavanna's contribution by relying on erroneous facts, they said.

On Shivacharya Swami saying the linga dates back to the Mohenjodaro-Harappa times, Rajaur, Patil and others countered it, saying it is the 'Stavara Linga' and not the 'Ista Linga'.

Meanwhile, in a setback to Shivacharya Swami, Gadugina Thontadarya Swamiji and other Lingayat pontiffs have said the contents of the textbook are right and they welcomed it.

River authority begins inspection of Mahadayi basin

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @Belagavi

UNDER pressure from the Goa government, the Progressive River Authority for Water and Harmony (PRAWAH) has begun the inspection of Mahadayi river basin in Karnataka, Maharashtra and Goa — the three stakeholders — from July 4. By getting PRAWAH to inspect the basin, the Goa government is making a desperate and last-ditch attempt to halt Karnataka from diverting the Mahadayi water, informed sources said.

The Goa government wants PRAWAH to take cognisance of how the flora and fauna in the thick forests in the Karnataka-Goa border will be affected if Karnataka diverts the Mahadayi water under various major works to be taken up under the Mahadayi project, sources added. According to sources, officials of the Water Resources Department from all the three states are expected to make their submissions before the committee after the inspection. PRAWAH has been appointed by the Union Government to oversee the compliance of Mahadayi Water Dispute Tribunal (MWDT) and the Supreme Court orders. PRAWAH members are visiting the project sites in response to the appeal made by Goa government that PM Scott, the outgoing PRAWAH chairman, inspect the site before the end of his term.

"PRAWAH will conduct a detailed site inspection of the Mahadayi basin which will familiarise them with the on ground facts about the extent of work undertaken by the Karnataka government. The inspection is crucial for Goa as it will uncover the truth before the PRAWAH members. This is an outcome of our continuous efforts to protect Mahadayi which will strengthen our case and vindicate our stand," Goa Chief Minister Pramod Sawant tweeted.

The Mahadayi river which originates in Kankumbi in Karnataka travels through Maharashtra before entering Goa and emptying into the Arabian Sea. Goa and Karnataka have locked horns over diversion of Mahadayi river water from Goa to Karnataka. Goa has filed a petition in the Supreme Court challenging the order of sharing waters pronounced by MWDT in 2018.

On his 'X' handle, Goa CM Sawant put out the itinerary of PRAWAH members during their Karnataka visit which said they will visit the proposed site of Kalasa project near Surla nala on Goa border at 9.30 am on July 7 and also visit the proposed sites of Kalasa and Banduri project located in Karnataka on the border the same day.

Goa Minister Subhash Shirodkar said on Thursday that PRAWAH would visit the sites and dams on the border. "We will show the members how several water sources of Goa, including the famous Surla waterfalls would go dry, if the water is diverted," he said.

'Give us land, I'm ready to give ₹2L cr for road works'

Former CM BS Yediyurappa and Union Minister Nitin Gadkari share a light moment at the BJP state executive committee meeting in Bengaluru on Thursday | EXPRESS

I told them that I am ready to give Rs 2 lakh crore to Karnataka in one month for road works. But my condition to them is to get the land acquisition done... get forest and other clearances. I cannot make roads in the air

Nitin Gadkari, Minister for Road Transport and Highways

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

UNION Minister for Road Transport and Highways Nitin Gadkari has said that his ministry is ready to give Rs 2 lakh crore to Karnataka within one month to undertake various road projects, provided the Congress State Government gives the required land.

Gadkari was speaking at the valedictory of the BJP state executive committee meeting in Bengaluru on Thursday.

Recalling that Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy CM DK Shivakumar met him in New Delhi recently, Gadkari said, "I told them that I am ready to give Rs 2 lakh crore to Karnataka in one month for road works. But my condition to them is to get the land acquisition done... get forest and other clearances. I cannot make roads in the air."

Further, Gadkari said that many MPs from Karnataka come to meet him with proposals for road projects. "Whatever their demand is, I have approved. I have sanctioned Rs 3.5 lakh crore worth of work for them. I tell them, get the work, and we will fund it," the minister said, adding that there is no dearth of funds.

He also said the Bengaluru-Chennai Expressway will be completed before December 2024, and it will be inaugurated by Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

On the Emergency, Gadkari said it was the Congress that tried to kill democracy and the Constitution.

Andhra Pradesh CM N Chandrababu Naidu meets Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi on Thursday

ANDHRA Pradesh Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu met Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi on Thursday and had constructive discussion to address important matters concerning the welfare and development of the state. Naidu expressed confidence that under the leadership of Narendra Modi, Andhra Pradesh will re-emerge as a powerhouse among states.

Naidu met Modi at the Prime Minister's residence at 10:15 am and congratulated him on assuming the charge of the office of Prime Minister of India for the third consecutive term.

According to the CMO, Naidu brought to the PM's attention the fiscal situation of the state which has significantly deteriorated, due to the previous government's misadventures and the absence of a strategic long-term development plan.

Drawing Modi's attention to the precarious financial situation of the state, he said Andhra continues to be constrained by a lack of financial resources, and explained that committed expenses, including salaries, pensions, and debt servicing, exceed the state's revenue receipts, leaving no fiscal space for productive capital investment.

Naidu had released two white papers on Polavaram and Amaravati before meeting Modi. In the white paper on the Polavaram project, he explained that the project is the lifeline of Andhra Pradesh, and how the 'reverse' policy of the previous government delayed the filling up the gap in cofferdam leading to floods, and damaged the D-wall.

He also met union ministers Amit Shah, Nitin Gadkari, Piyush Goyal, Shivraj Singh Chauhan, Manohar Lal Khattar, and Hardeep Singh Puri.

As several companies showed interest in setting up semiconductor fabs in Hyderabad, CM sought the inclusion of Telangana in the India Semiconductor Mission. A request was made for the allocation of 2,450 acres of defense land to the state for infrastructure projects, including elevated corridors on NH-44. Pinarayi defends SFI; UDF corners CM for patronage

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ T'puram

EVEN as the SFI has found itself in the eye of a storm, Kerala CM Pinarayi Vijayan on Thursday strongly defended the CPM's students wing, saying attempts are being made with narrow political perspective to tarnish the outfit. Countering opposition charges in the Assembly, Pinarayi said the SFI did not grow in force by setting up 'torture rooms' and it was by countering the attacks of KSU in various layers that the outfit evolved.

The CM's detailed justification came after opposition UDF cornered him over the attack on a KSU district leader by SFI members at Kariavattom University campus, saying the Chief Minister was patronizing all violent activities of the student outfit. Opposition Leader VD Satheesan accused the CM of validating the acts of the SFI and warned, "The phalanxes of goons that were reared in the incubator of debauched politics won't even spare you."

Chief Minister Pinarayi said the police acted to control the volatile situation without showing any political partiality.

TDP SHOULD HEED POLL VERDICT AGAINST VENDETTA POLITICS

EVEN as Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu was holding meetings with Prime Minister Narendra Modi and other Union ministers in New Delhi on Thursday, the Andhra Pradesh High Court directed his government not to proceed with the demolition of opposition YSR Congress's offices "unless overwhelming public interest is involved" and if the alleged deviations in their construction are "minor in nature and curable". It can be termed a setback for the government that was seeking to bulldoze the opposition's offices in several districts. The actions were clearly contradictory to Naidu's declaration following his massive mandate that there was no question of vendetta politics.

Unfortunately, using law enforcement agencies has become a favourite option of those in power. It's true that the TDP and its chief Naidu, too, had to bear the brunt of the previous YSRC government's fury—several of its leaders including Naidu himself were jailed or hounded on different cases. The party's office was attacked. Then former Chief Minister Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy's party was reduced to just 11 seats in the 175-member assembly. This in itself shows that the people have rejected vendetta politics. However, soon after assuming the mantle, we saw TDP cadre and a few leaders baying for YSRC's blood. The party's under-construction office at Tadepalli in Guntur district was razed and notices were served on its offices in a few districts. The government justifies its action by pointing at irregularities and illegalities in construction. It has the authority to proceed following 'due procedure' prescribed by the court. Back to 2019, too, Jagan had begun his CM's tenure by dismantling the Praja Vedika, a government complex, on the ground that it was illegal. The actions of Jagan and Naidu are eerily similar on this—the difference is one of degree, not of kind.

If this cycle of vengeance goes on, it is democracy that will suffer. People have elected the NDA in the state believing in its vision. The Naidu government owes it to the people to work towards it. The YSRC, demoralised by the verdict, is in no position to fight for itself, forget about public issues. Naidu has an excellent opportunity to show statesmanship, more so as he has a key role at the Centre too. It will be a tragedy if, instead, he prefers to stick to the beaten track.

MORE FUNDS, ACTION NEEDED TO MEET SDGs

THE Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) Report 2024 released by the UN shows that India has made impressive progress in areas such as poverty reduction, infrastructure development and transition to green energy. The country, however, faces major challenges on other counts such as building accountable institutions, peaceful and inclusive society, and providing justice for all. Health, building sustainable cities, gender and income inequalities are other areas of concern, according to the report.

The SDG report is the only official UN evaluation of the progress made by member countries on the 2030 agenda for sustainable growth. There are six years remaining to achieve the targets adopted by 191 countries in 2015. In order to meet the deadline, India needs to substantially increase its spending on health and education. Enrolment rates have increased, but the quality of education and employability of students remain a challenge. Women's participation in the job market, and access to healthcare, especially among marginalised communities, remain low and need to be addressed. India's large population and multiple challenges need a collaborative effort by building a partnership with the private sector and non-government organisations. Time was lost due to the pandemic. In order to reach even close to the 2030 targets, the government needs to improve its data collection, so that its decision-making is based on unassailable numbers. A robust monitoring mechanism, along with adequate allocation of funds is the only way to achieve a sustainable and resilient society as envisaged in 2015.

Environmental degradation is another challenge. Air and water pollution, deforestation and biodiversity loss need to be addressed as priorities. There is a continuous and massive migration from rural to urban centres. Providing housing, sanitation, transportation and managing waste in the swelling cities require better handling. Climate change is no longer a distant threat. India witnessed its impact yet again in recent weeks, with unprecedented temperatures and torrential rains that caused the loss of hundreds of lives. The SDG 2024 report has underlined the areas India must take up on priority to improve the quality of its citizens' lives. It provides a blueprint for building a resilient and sustainable India, as it does for the rest of the world too. It's time to accelerate the policy actions that would move us closer to achieving the goals.

QUICK TAKE

SHARE CROWD CONTROL EXPERTISE

IT'S shameful for a country that efficiently manages the world's largest crowd at the Kumbh mela to keep facing deadly stampedes. The death of 121 devotees at Hathras was not the first such tragic occurrence in recent memory. Hundreds of lives were lost at Mandhardevi in 2005, Chamundagar in 2008, Ratangarh in 2013 and Vaishno Devi in 2022. The Sabarimala stampedes of 1999 and 2011 are still fresh in public memory. An administrative manual on crowd control was written after a devastating stampede at the 1954 Kumbh. We should share the best practices from it, updating it with technology and the recent experience of administrators from across the country.

Statements on the Chinese army's 2020 transgression into India have often been contradictory. We must realise that the Chinese appreciate strength more than modesty

INDIA'S CURIOUS DIFFIDENCE ON THE CHINA QUESTION

MANISH TEWARI

Lawyer, MP and former I&B minister

MANOJ PARDIKAR

IT has been 50 months since the People's Liberation Army (PLA) of China transgressed across the Line of Actual Control (LAC) in April-May 2020 and occupied a broad swathe of Indian territory. Since then, the government of India has been exceptionally diffident about squarely confronting the China question.

It is not as if the government was oblivious to Chinese activities along the LAC. A news report on May 22, 2020 stated, "The first four months of this year, according to official data, witnessed 170 Chinese transgressions across the LAC, including 130 in Ladakh. There were only 110 such transgressions in Ladakh during the same period in 2019."

On the night of June 15, 2020, one of the worst confrontations between the PLA and the Indian Army took place in Galwan valley, leaving 20 Indian soldiers dead including the Commanding Officer of 16th Bihar, Colonel Bikkumalla Santosh Babu. Many more were wounded. Though officially the Chinese acknowledged only four casualties, according to an investigative report by Australian newspaper The Klaxon, the figure was much higher.

Even before the April-May 2020 incursions, the government had been trying to build a case of perceptional differences qua Chinese belligerence on the LAC, given that Chumar 2014 and Doklam 2017 had already happened on their watch. Speaking in the Lok Sabha on July 5, 2019, the defence minister asserted, "There is a perceptional difference between the two countries over the LAC. The main reason is that there is no mutually marked LAC. Both countries have their own perception. Due to this, often, incidences of transgression occur."

On September 15, 2020, the defence minister again stated in the Lok Sabha, "As yet, there is no commonly delineated LAC in the border areas between India and China, and there is no common perception of the entire LAC. Therefore, in order to ensure peace and tranquillity in the border areas, especially along the LAC, the two countries have concluded a number of agreements and protocols."

This may be partly correct, as is evident from a recent article in The New York Times, where Lt Gen Vinod Bhatia, former director general of military operations, was quoted saying, "It's four lines, actually... One is the Indian perception of the LAC. Another is the Chinese perception of the LAC. Third is the Indian perception of the Chinese perception of the LAC—because we have a perception based on their line of patrolling. And the fourth is, of course, the Chinese perception of the Indian perception."

Addressing the all-party meeting in the aftermath of the Galwan clash on July 19, 2020, the prime minister stated, "Na koi wahan hamari seema mein ghus aaya hai, aur nahi koi ghusa hua hai, na hi hamari koi post kisi dusre ke kabze mein hain (No one has intruded and nor is anyone intruding, nor has any post been captured by someone)."

Was the PM trying to say that the Galwan clash occurred not on Indian territory, but in what's the Chinese perception of the LAC or the Indian perception of the Chinese perception?

On June 20, 2020, a statement issued through the Press Information Bureau strangely contradicted the PM's earlier statement: "What is Indian territory is clear from the map of India. This government is strongly and resolutely committed to that. Insofar as there is some illegal occupation, the all-party meeting was briefed in great detail."

Both these statements contradicted an earlier statement of the foreign ministry on June 16 that squarely blamed China for attempting to alter the status quo ante on the border: "On the late evening and night of June 15, a violent face-off happened as a result of an attempt by the Chinese side to unilaterally change the status quo there." What does a Chinese attempt to change the status quo mean—that they were intruding into Indian territory, or had intruded, necessitating the restoration of status quo ante?

It's a position reiterated by the former Chief of the Army Staff, Gen Manoj Pande, as late as January 11, 2024: "We are in talks to restore status quo ante. Only once that happens can we look at the larger issue of troop reduction. Till then, whatever forces are required will continue to be deployed."

What is even more bewildering is that if the clarificatory statement of PIB on June 20, 2020 is taken at face value—that what's Indian territory is clear from the map of India—then where does that leave the theory of perceptions?

In January 2023, a senior police officer then serving in Ladakh, in a paper submitted to a conference of directors and inspectors general of police, wrote: "Presently, there are 65 PPs (patrolling points), starting from Karakoram pass to Chumur, which are to be patrolled regularly by the Indian security forces. Out of the 65 PPs, our presence is lost in 26—PP nos 5-17, 24-32, 37—due to restrictive or no patrolling by security forces."

These contradictions beg questions. What is the stand-off on the LAC for the past 50 months all about if the issue is only about differing perceptions on the LAC? What explains 21 corps-commander-level meetings since June 2020? What explains 29 rounds of meetings of the Working Mechanism for Consultation & Coordination on India-China Border Affairs since it was instituted in January 2012?

What explains the Indian defence minister's meeting with his Chinese counterpart Gen Wei Fenghe on September 4, 2020? What rationalises the meeting of the Indian foreign minister with his Chinese counterpart Wang Yi on September 10, 2020? A subsequent foreign ministry communiqué stated: "The two foreign ministers agreed that the current situation in the border areas is not in the interest of either side. They agreed, therefore, that the border troops of both sides should continue their dialogue, quickly disengage, maintain proper distance and ease tensions."

The Sino-Indian relationship is complex and fraught with the baggage of history going back to both the independence of India in 1947 and the establishment of the People's Republic of China in 1949. What India should understand that while the independence of India was a consequence of a unique pacifist struggle, the Chinese Communist state resulted from a prolonged civil war. What the Chinese, therefore, respect is strength and not diffidence. A fact India needs to be very cognisant about.

TROUBLING SHADOW FIGHT IN KARNATAKA CONGRESS

B S ARUN

Senior journalist based in Bengaluru

A storm is brewing in the ruling Congress in Karnataka between the groups supporting CM Siddaramaiah and Deputy CM D K Shivakumar, which has hit governance in the year-old dispensation. If Siddaramaiah's supporters are demanding appointment of more Deputy CMs (DCMs), followers of Shivakumar (DKS) want to replace Siddu with him. Hardly a day passes without a section of party functionaries, MLAs or even ministers going public on their demands. This has especially increased after the recent Lok Sabha elections, where the Congress won nine seats out of the state's 28, as against its target of "at least 20".

Ever since the Siddaramaiah-led government took over in May 2023, and despite the thumping victory in the assembly polls (135 seats out of 224), the state Congress has been beset with internal squabbles. This has greatly affected governance and in the last year, there has hardly been any notable administrative measure taken up save the set of 'guarantees'. The government's decision to raise fuel prices, milk prices, guidance value, etc—it is considering water rate and liquor price hikes—has only added to people's problems. There is widespread criticism that prices were raised only because the government was facing a serious fund crunch due to the outgo towards the five guarantees. The total allocation towards the guarantees this fiscal is ₹52,000 crore, up from ₹36,000 crore last fiscal.

The first wicket of the government fell recently. The shocking scam in the Karnataka Maharshi Valmiki Scheduled Tribes Development Corporation, where funds amounting to crores of rupees were diverted to fake accounts, took the scalp of ST welfare minister B Nagendra.

One of the main planks on which the Congress rode to power was corruption in the then BJP government, but there is hardly any visible action now, except for setting up a committee, to address this menace. If after a year people say there is no difference between the Congress government and the previous BJP one, we need not be surprised. The LS results were a warning for the Congress. There is still time for it to get its act together. If it fails to pay heed, a slap from the electorate could be awaiting the party in the next polls.

The internecine problems were an outcome of the cold war between Siddu and DKS ever since the former was chosen as CM. To be fair, backward classes leader Siddaramaiah and Vokkaliga strongman DKS have maintained cordiality in public; their supporters are the ones raising the matter often. DKS supporters say there was an understanding when Siddu was chosen as CM that DKS would take over after 2.5 years, while the CM's supporters deny it.

While Siddu said party leaders should refrain from talking about CM and DCM posts, DKS chided them saying they must go to the high command with their demand instead of talking to the media . The warning by DKS that no party leader should talk about it publicly has had no impact.

PTI

> D K Shivakumar's supporters have been pushing to make him the CM of the state, replacing current CM Siddaramaiah. But this demand drew strong reaction from the Ahinda group, whose leader warned of grave consequences if the demand was met

However, DKS's claim to the CM's post suffered a bit of a setback with the LS results. Congress did badly in the Vokkaliga stronghold of Old Mysore region, especially in Mandya—where JD(S) leader and now Union minister H D Kumaraswamy won—and in Bengaluru Rural—where DKS's brother D K Suresh badly lost. In several of the region's seats where Vokkaligas are in good numbers—Mysuru, Kolar, Chikkaballapur, Chitradurga, Shivamogga, and Chikkamagaluru—the Congress came a cropper. DKS's assembly seat of Kanakapura is part of Suresh's constituency. That the winner from Bengaluru Rural is C N Manjunath, a popular cardiologist and brother-in-law of Kumaraswamy, a fellow Vokkaliga and arch-rival of DKS, has the latter seething. DKS had put all his might behind Congress nominees in Bengaluru Rural and Mandya. The party also lost in Mysuru, to which Siddu belongs, although it won the neighbouring Chamarajanagar.

The pressure for the CM's replacement got a push as Chandrashekara Swamiji, a Vokkaliga seer, demanded on June 27, at an event where both were present, that Siddu give up his post voluntarily in favour of DKS "who has toiled hard to bring Congress to power". This again triggered a war of statements. The CM, responding to a volley of questions, pointed out that it was up to the high command to assess his performance and take a call. The pro-Siddu group raised a fresh demand that there should be a new KPCC president, which means current party chief DKS be replaced. It says the party was following the "one-man-one-post" policy and DKS should abide by that. They claimed his term as party chief was only until the 2024 LS polls.

The demand to replace Siddu has drawn strong reaction from the Ahinda (a Kannada acronym for minorities, backwards and Dalits) group. Ahinda state president Prabhulinga Doddamani warned the Congress of grave consequences if the demand was met and threatened state-wide protests if the incumbent CM was removed. "If they try to remove our beloved Siddaramaiah from power, we warn that the Congress will not exist. The Ahinda will stand by the CM like his backbone."

DKS in particular and the Congress in general will have another test waiting in the form of bypolls to the Channapatna assembly seat vacated by Kumaraswamy. Channapatna, neighbouring Kanakapura, is part of the Bengaluru Rural LS constituency. Recently, DKS nearly projected himself as a candidate, but backed out later.

The feud has left the government directionless; there is no focused attention on welfare or developmental projects. The factional feud is eating into the goodwill the Congress earned during assembly polls.

Parties' problems

When the ecosystem is full of casteist sentiments, it is extremely challenging to do away with this. As long as vote banks are based on caste, politicians will never change. Asking children not to wear tilak etc will not change anything as they are not responsible for discrimination. Discriminations in some form or other do exist everywhere.

Role responsibility

Leader of the Opposition Rahul Gandhi seems to have made false claims in the Lok Sabha on the compensation to the families of dead Agniveer as well as the MSP issue. He apparently even accused the defence minister and agriculture minister of lying to parliament. Can India afford to have this man as the LoP? He may be the most dangerous LoP the House has seen.

■ Decreasing trend in clashes since Oct 2023 in Northeast state ■ Cong MP from Inner Manipur says reality is different

'PM has worked to bring down Manipur violence'

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR
@ New Delhi

FOLLOWING heated exchanges over the Manipur situation in Parliament, official sources said efforts are underway to restore normalcy in the state after clashes broke out last year between the Meitei and Kuki communities, killing at least 225 people.

Under PM Modi's directive, the Centre has taken extensive measures to quell violence. The situation has significantly improved across the state, although sporadic incidents continue.

The government said it has worked proactively in its response, with 11,423 FIRs being filed and preventive actions initiated against 4, 78,986 people. PM Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah have held over 15 meetings with state officials to coordinate peace efforts and provide necessary assistance.

The Home Ministry has allocated ₹400.42 crore to the affected people, focusing on relief and rehabilitation.

A senior government official quoted data to indicate a decreasing trend in violent incidents since October 2023, hinting at a notable reduction in missing persons and arson cases.

In November and December 2023, Manipur reported zero missing persons and arson incidents, thanks to heightened security measures and direct monitoring by PM Modi and HM Amit Shah. In January and February 2024, the trend continued with zero arson cases, but the period reported 15 deaths and 42 injuries in January, and 5 deaths and 54 injuries in February due to clashes.

"By March 2024, Manipur saw no deaths but reported 19 firing incidents. In April, despite four deaths and injuries to four individuals, there were no missing or arson cases, while May recorded one injury and 15 firing incidents.

Then onwards up to June 12, the state witnessed one death, two injuries, and 130 arson incidents, highlighting the challenges despite overall improvements in the security situation," said an official.

Government sources emphasized the ongoing efforts to bridge the divide between the Meitei and Kuki communities. "Peace initiatives at various levels aim to consolidate these gains and restore lasting peace and stability in Manipur.

"Central and state government efforts, bolstered by substantial financial aid and strategic interventions, have been pivotal in mitigating violence and initiating the path towards normalcy in Manipur", said an official source.

'Disappointed with PM's statement as it normalises our abnormal conditions'

FIRST-time Congress MP from Inner Manipur, Angomcha Bimol Akoijam, hogged the headlines for his speech in the Lok Sabha early this week. An Associate Professor at JNU, Akoijam spoke to Preetha Nair about what he thinks on PM Modi's statement on Manipur and the way forward to restore normalcy. Excerpts:

PM Modi said there has been a decline in violence in Manipur and schools have reopened in most parts. Your response...

I'm disappointed with his statement because it normalises our abnormal conditions. He said that many schools and offices have started functioning. But the Meiteis do not go to certain areas to attend offices or school and colleges and Kukis do not go to offices or school or colleges in the central valley areas. The situation reminds me of Partition. I wish the PM was in tune with the ground reality.

What according to you is the core issue? What are the steps to be taken to restore peace?

The abject failure of the state is the core issue. This is besides the lack of clarity on the situation as their contradictory statements show. The state government and the Centre must come out clean on the nature of the problem. Is it a conflict between communities? If it is not, why are we trying to have a conversation between two communities? If this is a conflict between foreign elements, why should we talk to them? The Manipur government says it is related to terrorism while the home minister says it's not. The Centre and the state must act on the ground rather than normalising the violence by saying the schools, colleges and offices are open. They should speak the same language.

CM Biren Singh has said that central forces are not doing enough...

The CM must ask the Centre why his directives are not being followed by armed forces. The state government has turned into a proxy government.

Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM) leader Hemant Soren takes the oath of office and secrecy as the 13th Chief Minister of Jharkhand during the swearing-in ceremony at the Raj Bhavan in Ranchi on Thursday | PTI

Hemant Soren back as CM after 5 months

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

HOURS after getting an invite from Governor C P Radhakrishnan to take his oath of office and secrecy, Hemant Soren was sworn in as the thirteenth chief minister of Jharkhand on Thursday.

Hemant replaced Champai Soren, who put in his papers as CM on Wednesday. Hament had installed Champai as the stopgap CM on February 2 following his arrest in a land grab case by the Enforcement Directorate.

Interestingly, Hament became the third CM of the state to take the oath of office for the third time. His father Shibu Soren and BJP leader Arjun Munda had in the past held the post of CM thrice. Before heading for the ceremony at Raj Bhawan, Hemant posted a video on X, calling it the defeat of the BJP's conspiracy to keep him out of power. "People intoxicated with power tried to silence me, but now the voice of Jharkhand's residents will be strengthened... Jharkhand jhukega nahin.... Jharkhand rukega nahin, (Jharkhand will never bow down, Jharkhand will never stop)," he asserted.

After the ceremony, Hemant said Champai took the development agenda of the coalition forward amidst political upheaval following his arrest. "Developmental works will continue with fresh impetus," he added.

NEET: CBI arrests 'key' suspect from Dhanbad

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

THE Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) has arrested Ravindra alias Aman Singh, in the NEET UG paper leak case from Dhanbad on Wednesdag. Aman Singh is said to be the main conspirator in the paper leak.

A team of CBI officials reached Dhanbad based on the interrogation of the people arrested so far in the paper leak case and the information received from their digital devices. This is sixth arrest in the case, including Principal of Oasis School, Ehsanul Haque, Vice-Principal cum Centre Coordinator, Imtiyaj Alam and journalist Jamaluddin from Hazaribagh, who were arrested on Friday.

The CBI team arrested Aman Singh from Bindu Apartment in Bapu Nagar under Saraidhela police station area of Dhanbad. His associate Bunty, however, succeeded in escaping from the place.

Aman Singh is said to be very close to Rocky, who is absconding in the paper leak case. Rocky is the nephew of Sanjeev Mukhiya, who is involved in the hotel business in Ranchi.

Sources also claimed that Rocky had arranged solvers to prepare the answers to the NEET paper after the leak. Rocky is a special agent of the Sanjeev Mukhiya gang in Jharkhand.

MBBS students from Ranchi and Patna were used as solvers. The arrest of Aman Singh may provide important clues about Rocky and the solvers. Two inspectors of the CBI team have been conducting raids in Saraidhela and Govindpur police station areas since Wednesday morning.

Earlier, Bihar police had raided locations in Deoghar and recovered some question papers, which were found to be identical to the one found in Oasis School Center in Hazaribagh

In Astana, India and China agree to defuse LAC tension

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

FOREIGN Ministers of India and China on Thursday agreed that the prolonging the current situation in the border areas is not in the interest of either country. "I met with CPC Politburo member and Foreign Minister Wang Yi in Astana this morning. We discussed the early resolution of remaining issues in border areas. We agreed to redouble efforts through diplomatic and military channels to that end," External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar said on Thursday, on the sidelines of the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO) Summit in Astana.

The two ministers also agreed that it was important to respect the Line of Actual Control (LAC) and ensure peace and tranquillity in the border areas. "The three mutuals – mutual respect, mutual sensitivity and mutual interest – will guide our bilateral ties," Jaishankar added.

He highlighted the need to redouble efforts to achieve complete disengagement from the remaining areas in Eastern Ladakh and restore border peace and tranquillity in order to remove obstacles towards return of normalcy in bilateral relations. He reaffirmed the importance of fully abiding by relevant bilateral agreements, protocols, and understandings reached between the two governments in the past.

LAC must be respected and peace and tranquillity in the border areas always ensured, a statement said. Meanwhile, both ministers agreed to step up meetings of the diplomatic and military officials and take forward their discussions to resolve the remaining issues at the earliest.

Jaishankar also extended India's support for China's Presidency in SCO next year. Meanwhile, Jaishankar read out Prime Minister Narendra Modi's remarks during the Summit.

"The SCO is a principle-based organisation, whose consensus drives the approach of its member states. We are reiterating mutual respect for sovereignty, independence, territorial integrity, equality, mutual benefit and non-interference in internal matters as a basis of our foreign policies. I congratulate Kazakh side for successfully hosting the SCO Summit and also convey our best wishes to China for the next Presidency of the SCO," said Modi.

Modi to be in Russia next week

Prime Minister Narendra Modi will be in Moscow next week for the 22nd India-Russia Annual Summit. On a two nation trip from July 8 to 10, he will head to Vienna, Austria after concluding his Moscow visit. "He was invited by Russian President Vladimir Putin. The two leaders will review the entire range of bilateral relations and also exchange views of regional, global and mutual interest," according to the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA). President Putin on Wednesday had offered his condolences to PM Modi and President Draupadi Murmu on the Hathras tragedy.

SC seeks reply from states and UTs over 'inhuman' conditions in prisons

SUCHITRA KALYAN MOHANTY
@ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday asked states and Union Territories to file a detailed reply addressing the inhuman conditions in prisons. The apex court has already taken suo motu cognizance of the conditions in 1,382 prisons across the country, remarking that the problems plaguing jails in India continue to persist.

The two-judge vacation bench of the top court, led by Justice Hima Kohli and Justice Ahsanuddin Amanullah said, "The states/UTs in their proposed affidavits should address all the issues holistically, including inmate capacity enhancement/augmentation. Other logistics such as creation of posts of wardens/cooks/doctors/various jail staff etc. should also be factored in."

The top court also said that prisoners and their rights are covered under Article 21 of the Constitution. While citing many judgments, the SC said that the court had pointedly said that prisoners are entitled to fundamental rights even while in custody.

Amicus curiae (friend of the court) Gaurav Agrawal appointed by the court to assist in the matter, said Bihar was grappling with overcrowding in jails, especially district jails at Aurangabad, Darbhanga, Gopalganj, Khagaria, Lakhisarai, Madhepura, and many others.

The apex court, while taking into record all arguments, fixed the matter for further hearing to July 11.Cabinet Committee on Investment comprises Modi, Rajnath, Shah, Gadkari, Sitharaman, Goyal, Pralhad Joshi, Giriraj Singh, among others.

COMBATING TERROR IN J&K

MHA spots 140 villages in 5 Jammu dists to recruit locals

MUKESH RANJAN
@ New Delhi

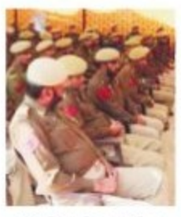
THE Union Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) has identified 140 villages in militancy-hit five districts of the Jammu region, including Poonch, Doda, Rajouri, Reasi, and Udhampur, for the recruitment of Special Police Officers (SPOs), similar to what is being done in the Kashmir Valley, officials said on Thursday.

Officials said that of 140 villages, 47 are in Poonch, 27 are in Doda, and 22 each are in Rajouri, Reasi, and Udhampur.

The officials said the recruitment would be based on the physical tests of the aspirants, and they would be taken on board in July itself. They added that such SPOs would be paid an honorarium of ₹ 6,000 per month by the district police and would also be given weapon training.

The SPOs, being locals with a deep understanding of the selected villages, will provide crucial support to the regular security forces in anti-terror operations, officials highlighted.

All the selected villages have witnessed terror attacks in the recent past.



Why locals needed?

Officials said the special police officers (SPOs), who are locals with a deep understanding of the villages, will provide crucial support to the regular security forces in anti-terror operations. The SPOs would also be given weapon training, they added.

New force of 960 recruits raised from border villages

Why at border?

The DGP said that as the recruits are border residents and know the topography, they can help take the villagers along to ensure zero infiltration. Moreover, it would help in breaking militant networks and checking weapon collection.

FAYAZ WANI
@ Srinagar

AFTER recent surge in militancy-related incidents in Jammu region and infiltration attempts, J&K police has created a new force of 960 young recruits drawn from the border villages in the Union Territory and deployed them on borders to check such incidents.

Of the newly 960 police recruits, 560 have been deployed in the border areas of the Jammu and the rest in Valley's border areas.

"These recruits recently passed out from Police Training Centres. They are young and residents of border villages. Their recruitment has been done as per their specific location," Director General of Police (DGP) R R Swain said. "They will only be posted for anti-militancy and anti-infiltration duties," he said.

The DGP said that as the recruits are border residents and know the topography, they can help take the villagers along to ensure zero infiltration. Moreover, it would help in breaking militant networks and checking weapon collection airdropped from drones, he added.

On June 9, militants attacked a pilgrim bus in Reasi, killing 9 persons and injuring 43.

Cong MP writes to Birla, flags 'inaccurate' remarks by Thakur in Parliament

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

DAYS after the political showdown between the treasury benches and Opposition parties in the first session of the 18th Lok Sabha, Congress MP Manickam Tagore has written to Speaker Om Birla, alleging that PM Narendra Modi and BJP MP Anurag Thakur made "factually incorrect, inaccurate and misleading statements" in the House and sought appropriate action in the matter.

The move comes after BJP's Bansuri Swaraj submitted a notice against LoP Rahul Gandhi over alleged inaccuracies in his speech on the Motion of Thanks to the President's address in the Lok Sabha.

Tagore requested Birla that provisions of direction 115(1) be invoked over the statements made by PM Modi and Thakur. He flagged that PM Modi in his reply to the Motion of Thanks to the President's address said that the Congress made a "false promise" of ₹8,500 per month to women, while the party's promise was conditional to victory.

Tagore challenged the PM's claim that the Congress vote share has come down in 16 states in which it contested alone.

"This is factually incorrect. The Congress vote share increased in Himachal Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Karnataka, Telangana etc," Tagore said. The party termed as "grossly misleading" Modi's remarks that "no bullet-proof jackets were provided to the Army during the Congress time".

Tagore flagged alleged inaccuracies in Thakur's July 1 speech.

He said Thakur claimed that the Army was not given arms and fighter jets when the party was in power.

"We had Jaguar, Mig 29, SU-30, Mirage 2000....We had nuclear bombs, missiles like Agni, Prithvi, Aakash, Nag, Trishul and later Brahmos," he said.

■ A part of bridge built over Gandaki fell, cutting off over 50 villages in Saran district ■ Heavy rains in Himachal, 115 roads closed

10th Bihar bridge to fall in 16 days, Nitish fumes

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

IN a series of mystifying bridge collapses in various parts of Bihar, yet another bridge gave way in Saran district on Thursday — the 10th such incident in 16 days. Frustrated by frequent cave-ins and a rising political temperature, the state government promised to act against negligent officials.

In the latest incident, a part of the bridge connecting Saraiya and Satua panchayats and built over the Gandaki fell, cutting off over 50 villages under Saran and adjoining Siwan district. The bridge was built by the local authorities around 15 years ago.

Saran district magistrate Aman Samir said a probe has been ordered to find out the reason for the collapse of small bridges in the district. "I personally visited the site and talked to the officials responsible for maintenance of the collapsed bridges. Desilting work and heavy rain in the area may have led to such incidents," said Samir.

On Wednesday, two small bridges fell in Saran district — one in Janata Bazar and another in Lahladpur.

The incidents have raised concerns about the structural integrity of the older bridges in the state. Similar incidents were reported from Siwan, Madhubani, Araria, East Champaran and Kishanganj districts. CM Nitish Kumar has sought an inspection report of all under-construction and old bridges within two weeks. His orders came in a review meeting of the state government's road and bridge maintenance policy with the officials of the departments concerned.

Plea in SC on structural audit of bridges

A PIL has been filed in the Supreme Court seeking direction to the Bihar government to conduct a structural audit of all the existing and under-construction bridges in the state and demolish or retrofit weak structures. Petitioner Brajesh Singh said the total flood-hit area in the state is 68,800 sq km which is 73.06% of the total area of the state. He sought direction from the court to make an effective policy for the real-time monitoring of all bridges. He also said the right to life should mean the 'right to life with dignity.'

Prone to landslides

During monsoon season this stretch is prone to landslides, especially between Mandi and Manali. New retaining walls to fortify the highway against recurring threats were constructed by the NHAI.

Trees uprooted, power supply hit in many areas

As per the data from the state emergency operation centre, as many as 115 roads including 107 in Mandi, four in Chamba, three in Solan and one in Kangra district are closed for vehicular traffic following rains. As many as 212 transformers have suffered disruption across the state, affecting the power supply. Several trees were uprooted in Shimla which had received 84 mm of rainfall since Wednesday evening

Cracks resurface on road to Manali

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

CRACKS have resurfaced on the Kiratpur-Manali National Highway near 4 Mile and the Pandoh Kainchi Mod in Mandi district of Himachal Pradesh and the road has started sinking, forcing officials to allow only one-way traffic.

These cracks took place during the monsoon last year. But despite the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) carrying out repairs, the cracks have resurfaced. The road links the vital route connecting the Kullu-Manali and Lahaul and Spiti to the plains. Also, some 115 roads across the state have been closed to traffic due to the heavy rainfall that lashed several parts of the hill state.

At several places, roads along Kiratpur-Manali highway have started sinking, raising doubts about the quality of construction. The tarring work is going on at the spot at a war footing, said project manager Raj Shekar.

During monsoon season this stretch is prone to landslides, especially between Mandi and Manali. Last year a major repair work was done after a severe damage to the stretch. New retaining walls to fortify the highway against recurring threats were constructed by the NHAI. An NHAI official said that while cracks have emerged due to water percolation leading to settlement, there is no immediate danger to the highway as the restoration work is going on at both critical points to bolster the infrastructure and prevent escalation. Besides, plans are afoot to secure the highway against landslides.

Meanwhile, hoteliers in Manali have expressed apprehension about the current condition of the highway as they fear that further damage could significantly impact tourism.

As per the data from the state emergency operation centre, as many as 115 roads including 107 in Mandi, four in Chamba, three in Solan and one in Kangra district are closed for vehicular traffic following rains.

Hunt for new police chief begins, 2 frontrunners

Chhattisgarh has geared up to appoint a new Director General of Police. Among the other contenders for the top post, the names of two senior IPS officers—Arun Dev Gautam (1992-batch) and Himanshu Gupta (1994-batch) who were promoted to the rank of DGP on Wednesday have emerged as the frontrunner given their seniority. After the Departmental Promotion Committee had cleared the names of the duo for promotion from the ADG rank, the state home department issued the order. The present DGP Ashok Juneja (1989-batch) is retiring next month.

Cabinet reshuffle put on hold by CM Sai

Following the BJP MLA and former minister Brijmohan Agrawal's resignation after becoming a Lok Sabha member, all eyes were on his replacement besides filing one portfolio lying vacant in the Vishnu Deo Sai cabinet. Reassigning departments of the current minister was also on the cards. The CM meeting the Governor, later visiting Delhi twice previous week to meet PM Narendra Modi and BJP president were seen as an indication of a likely cabinet expansion. Apparently not getting any signal from BJP top leadership and no expression from the party organisation, the cabinet expansion seems to have been put in abeyance.

Turmoil in Raj BJP as Kirori Lal Meena quits as agriculture minister

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

RAJASTHAN Agriculture Minister Kirori Lal Meena resigned from the Bhajan Lal Sharma government on Thursday, a move that triggered speculations even as he said that he was fulfilling his statement made before the Lok Sabha elections.

Meena had said he would quit the state cabinet if the BJP loses any of the seven Lok Sabha seats under his responsibility. Although he did not specify which seats, it was believed that he referred to his home district of Dausa and that of CM Sharma, Bharatpur, and 5 other seats of eastern Rajasthan. The BJP's loss in these seats had led to speculation that Meena might resign. The BJP lost 11 out of the 25 Lok Sabha seats in Rajasthan.

After resigning, Meena told reporters that he had been to Delhi for two days for talks with the party's national general secretary, but the meeting could not take place. "I have no resentment towards the organisation or the Chief Minister. I had made a statement earlier, so I cannot back out," he said. Meena also commented critically on the current state of politics. "It is not possible for today's politics to be like that of Lord Ram, but we must strive to move it in that direction," he said. Earlier, Meena posted on X, "Raghukul reeti sada chali aai, pran jaai par vachan na jaai,' underscoring his commitment to his word.

Sources indicate that Meena had met with the CM a few days ago and tendered his resignation then. Due to the ongoing budget session of the assembly, the resignation was kept confidential.

Experts suggest that Meena's resignation may increase tensions for the Bhajan Lal government for two reasons. First, the opposition Congress has become more aggressive since the Lok Sabha elections, particularly on issues like electricity and gravel. Second, besides Meena, reports indicate that one minister and three MLAs are also unhappy with the government.

Gujarat HC raps report on Rajkot gaming zone fire

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

THE Gujarat High Court on Thursday raised questions on the state government's report on the TRP game zone fire in Rajkot, asking why no action was taken against the entertainment centre despite a closure notice issued against it after earlier blaze there a year ago. The court said that the municipal commissioner cannot evade responsibility as the game zone continued to operate unlawfully. HC's strong words came when the government-appointed fact-finding committee submitted its report on the May 25 game zone fire that killed 27 people.

"The court highlighted that the fire incident at the same game zone occurred in September 2023. Despite being aware of the incident, the fire department did not verify if the venue had the necessary permits. The court also demanded an explanation for the lack of action taken against game zone at that time,"

Brijesh Trivedi, president of the Gujarat High Court Association, told reporters. "The court said the municipal commissioner cannot evade responsibility for the incident (May 25 fire). Court demanded a detailed explanation from the government."

16.5 lakh people hit by Assam floods, toll rises to 56; Kaziranga inundated

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Guwahati

OVER 16.50 lakh people in Assam are affected by floods in 29 districts with the major rivers flowing above the danger level in the state.

The death toll in this year's flood, landslides and storms has increased to 56.

An alert has been sounded in Kamrup district with the Brahmaputra, Digaru and Kollong rivers flowing above the red mark with vast tracts of land inundated.

At the famed Kaziranga National Park, a total of 31 animals have died due to drowning, while 82 others have been rescued in the worst deluge in recent years, a park official said. Out of the 233 camps in the Eastern Assam Wildlife Division, 95 were still inundated till Thursday evening as against the 141 during the day, the official said.

Dhubri is the worst hit with over 2.23 lakh people suffering, followed by Darrang with nearly 1.84 lakh people and Lakhimpur with more than 1.66 lakh people reeling under flood waters. The Brahmaputra is flowing above the danger marks at Nimatighat, Tezpur, Guwahati, Goalpara and Dhubri.

Its tributaries Subansiri at Badatighat, Burhi Dihing at Chenimari, Dikhou at Sivasagar, Disang at Nanglamuraghat, Dhansiri at Numaligarh, and Kopili at Kampur and Dharamtul are flowing above the danger levels. The Barak is flowing above the danger mark at AP Ghat, BP Ghat, Chota Bakra and Fuletrak, while its tributaries Dhaleswari at Gharmura, Katakhal at Matizuri and Kushiyara at Karimganj town are also flowing above the danger marks.

Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma chaired a meeting on the flood situation with all district commissioners late on Wednesday night and directed them to be liberal in granting relief as per norms, complete all rehabilitation claims as per norms before August 15 and provide accurate information to the headquarters so that adequate relief can be ensured. Cabinet ministers will also be camping in the flood-hit districts for the next three days from Thursday.

In Arunachal Pradesh, landslides triggered by rains snapped communication in at least seven districts of Arunachal Pradesh on Thursday, officials said.

The districts affected by landslides are Siang, East Siang, Upper Siang, West Siang, Shi Yomi, Leparada and Upper Subansiri. An alert has been sounded in Kamrup (Metro) district with the Brahmaputra, Digaru and Kollong rivers flowing above the red mark.

Two vet labs at Central institute in Bengaluru get global recognition

BALA CHAUHAN @ Bengaluru

IN a landmark development for veterinary science in India, the World Organisation for Animal Health (WOAH) has designated ICAR-NIVEDI, Bengaluru's 'Peste des Petits Ruminants' (PPR) or goat plague and 'Leptospirosis' laboratories as WOAH reference laboratories. "The laboratories are equipped with advanced facilities for genomic characterization, molecular diagnostics, and large-scale surveillance. They support the Central Government's goal of eradicating PPR by 2030 under the National Strategic Plan, in alignment with the PPR-Global Eradication Programme (GEP)," said Principal Scientist & PRO, ICAR-NIVEDI, Sathish B Shivachamdra.

With recognition of the two laboratories at NIVEDI, India now hosts four WOAH reference laboratories, three of which are in Bengaluru, including the one for rabies at the Veterinary College. The fourth one, on avian influenza, is at the ICAR-National Institute of High-Security Animal Diseases (NIHSAD) in Bhopal.

NIVEDI (National Institute of Veterinary Epidemiology and Disease Informatics) plays a crucial role in combating and management of leptospirosis by providing diagnostic service, surveillance and one-health joint capacity building training, under the centrally sponsored national one health programme for prevention and control of zoonoses. "The global recognition of the two laboratories at NIVEDI highlights the institute's pivotal role in monitoring, surveillance, diagnostic support, and capacity building for PPR and leptospirosis across India," added Shivachandra.

Principal Scientist, NIVEDI, V Balamurugan has been appointed the designated expert for these laboratories. Director, ICAR-NIVEDI, Baldev R Gulati said, "NIVEDI's designation as one of six WOAH reference laboratories for leptospirosis and one of four for PPR globally places the institute at the forefront of international efforts to combat these deadly diseases".

"This achievement underscores NIVEDI's commitment to improving global animal health and supporting agricultural economies worldwide, setting the stage for future successes in veterinary epidemiology and disease control," added Gulati.

Leptospirosis is a global zoonotic disease caused by bacteria called leptospira, affecting both humans and animals. Known as one of the leading neglected diseases, it is re-emerging as a significant public health problem, particularly in areas with high prevalence. Annually, an estimated 1.03 million people are infected, leading to about 58,900 deaths worldwide. Adult males aged 20-49 are most commonly affected. In India, leptospirosis is a major concern with an annual rate of 19.7 cases per 1,00,000 people. The disease also has a substantial impact on animals, particularly livestock, causing frequent outbreaks and economic losses. PPR is a contagious viral disease that primarily affects goats and sheep and wreaks havoc in developing countries.

Dress code for priests — saffron out, yellow in

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

AMONG a series of changes to be made in Ram temple, the first one is to be brought about in the days to come. It reflects in the hue of attire of priests serving Lord Ram in sanctum sanctorum in Ayodhya as they are now seen donning traditional yellow (pitambari) clothes instead of saffron.

Significantly, Shree Ram Janmabhoomi Teerth Kshetra Trust has issued a new dress code for the priests as per which they are now sporting a dhoti, chaubandi and a turban, all of which are yellow in colour.

Earlier, the priests used to wear saffron kurta, turban and dhoti.

The head gear is made up of cotton. They have been imparted proper training to sport the turban neatly, said a temple trust source. The chaubandi, a kurta-like robe, has a rope, instead of buttons, to hold it in place. The dhoti sported by the priests covers their legs till the ankles.

Additionally, one of the assistant priests at the temple claimed that according to the principles of the Sanatana Dharma—priests should wear clothes from head to toe. He said that so far, a few priests used to sport yellow attire but now it was made mandatory for the entire team of priests to serve the deity in Pitambari.

Moreover, the priests have also been banned from taking mobile phones along inside the sanctum sanctorum.

So far, there had been no such ban on carrying mobile phones. As per the temple trust sources, the ban on the priests carrying the mobile phones was necessitated from the security concerns after recent pictures of the temple were leaked on social media and the looming threat perception.

Though security concern is being projected as the main reason from banning smart phone inside the temple, the change seems consequent to the controversy over alleged 'water seepage' inside the sanctum sanctorum of the temple as was claimed by the chief priest Acharya Saytendra Das. However, his claim was refuted both by Champat Rai, general secretary, temple trust and Nripendra Mishra, the retired IAS officer who heads the temple construction committee.

As per the buzz, the temple trust is also thinking on lines of replacing the head priest, 90, given his old age.

Changes have also been made in the configuration of the priests serving Lord Ram in the sanctum sanctorum. So far, there used to be a team of five priests, including a main and four assistant priests inside the temple. Now, apart from the main priest, assistant priests will be accompanied by a team of five trainee priests who will serve inside the sanctum sanctorum from 3.30 am to 11 pm.

No mobile phones in Ram temple in Ayodhya

The priests have also been banned from taking mobile phones along inside the temple. The ban on the priests carrying mobile phones was necessitated from the security concerns after recent pictures of the temple were leaked on social media and the looming threat perception.

Sunak seat shaky; Labour eyes historic win as UK votes

Opinion polls suggest Sunak's seat, too, might not be safe; three major surveys project Labour winning at least 430 seats; results will be out today

LONDON

BRITAIN voted Thursday in a general election that polls predict will hand the opposition Labour party a landslide win and end nearly a decade-and-a-half of Conservative rule.

The first national ballot since Boris Johnson won the Tories a decisive victory in 2019 follows Prime Minister Rishi Sunak's surprise call to hold an election six months earlier than required. His gamble looks set to backfire spectacularly, with polls throughout the six-week campaign – and for the last two years – pointing to a heavy defeat for his right-wing party.

That would almost certainly put Labour leader Keir Starmer, 61, in Downing Street, as leader of the largest party in parliament. Centre-left Labour is projected to win its first general election since 2005 by historic proportions, with a flurry of election-eve polls all forecasting its biggest-ever victory.But Starmer was taking nothing for granted as he urged voters not to stay at home.

"Britain's future is on the ballot," he said. "But change will only happen if you vote for it." Voting began at 7 am in more than 40,000 polling stations across the country, from church halls, community centres and schools to more unusual venues such as pubs and even a ship.

Sunak was among the early birds, casting his ballot at his Richmond and Northallerton constituency in Yorkshire, northern England. Starmer voted around two hours later in his north London seat, shortly before Liberal Democrat leader Ed Davey.

Voting closes at 10 pm. Broadcasters then announce exit polls, which typically provide an accurate picture of how the main parties have performed.

Results from the UK's 650 constituencies trickle in overnight, with the winning party expected to hit 326 seats — the threshold for a parliamentary majority — as dawn breaks on Friday. Polls suggest voters will punish the Tories after 14 years of often chaotic rule and could oust a string of government ministers, with talk that even Sunak himself might not be safe. That would make him the first sitting prime minister not to retain his seat in a general election. "I appreciate people have frustrations with our party," he conceded on Wednesday. "But tomorrow's vote... is a vote about the future." Sunak, 44, is widely seen as having run a dismal campaign, with anger over his decision to leave D-Day commemorations in France early the standout moment.

In new blows on Wednesday, The Sun newspaper switched allegiance to Labour — a key endorsement given the tabloid has backed the winner at every election for several decades.

It follows the Financial Times, the Economist and The Sunday Times as well as traditionally left-leaning papers The Guardian and The Daily Mirror, also endorsing the party.

Meanwhile, three large-scale surveys indicated Labour was on the brink of a record victory, with the Tories set for their worst-ever result and the centrist Liberal Democrats resurgent in third.

YouGov, Focaldata and More in Common all projected Labour would secure at least 430 seats, topping the 418 under Tony Blair in 1997.

The Conservatives could plunge to a record low of less than 127, the trio predicted.

The Lib Dems were tipped to scoop dozens of seats – up from their current tally of 15 – while Nigel Farage's Reform UK party was set to win a handful.

Visa to Chinese technicians for non-PLI beneficiaries

Govt has already decided to allow Chinese nationals in India to work for companies eligible for production-linked incentive (PLI) schemes

DIPAK MONDAL @New Delhi

THE government is considering granting visas to Chinese technicians/workers for PLI sector companies, which are not eligible for production-linked incentives (PLI). It has already decided to allow Chinese nationals in India to work for companies eligible for production-linked incentive (PLI) schemes.

Rajesh Kumar Singh, secretary, Department for Promotion of Industries and Internal Trade (DPIIT), said in a media briefing that the department is also working on a streamlined visa process for these strategic sectors which do not have the PLI benefits.

"We are in the process of drawing up a similar streamlined process for non-PLI companies as well. The final decision has not been taken but we are moving in that direction and we are hopeful that it will be done," said the DPIIT secretary.

He further said that the department has already drawn up a streamlined process for PLI beneficiaries; the government is trying to get the PLI scheme expanded to non-PLI beneficiaries, which are operating in the same strategic sectors.

"Since companies availing PLI benefits are getting a subsidy and visa relaxation, the others should also get a streamlined visa process, if not subsidy," said that secretary.

The Ministry of Home Affairs and Ministry of External Affairs will take the final call, Singh said. Industries have requested the government to ease the visa process for Chinese technicians and workers in India as there is a significant skill gap in the country. The government has earlier agreed to ease the visa norms for Chinese workers for sectors availing PLI benefits. Now, the government is also considering extending the relaxed Visa norms to strategic non-PLI sectors.

When asked if the government is considering the demands of any sectors for expansion of the PLI scheme, the DPIIT secretary said consultations have always been ongoing and industry demands are always there for extension of PLI. "However, we cannot announce the sectors unless the government has finalized anything on this," he said.

On the industry demand for removal of angel tax, the secretary said that DPIIT has recommended the government for removal of the same, and it is now up to the finance ministry to consider the recommendation.

'Not heard of Tesla since Musk's last tweet'

The government has not heard anything from Tesla on its plans to invest in India after its promoter Elon Musk's last tweet (in April this year). "The tweet after election is the last the government has heard from Tesla," said the DPIIT Secretary. Musk had then tweeted: "Congratulations @narendramodi on your victory in the world's largest democratic elections! Looking forward to my companies doing exciting work in India," Musk had said in a post on X. ENS

SEBI TO BROKERS

Need mechanism to tackle fraud, market abuse

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Mumbai

MARKETS watchdog Sebi has asked stockbrokers to put in place an institutional mechanism by August 1, to help prevent and detect frauds or market abuse so that the system can instill confidence in the securities market.

In a new circular amending the extant master circular, invoking the provisions of Chapter IVA of Sebi (stock brokers) (Amendment) Regulations, 2024, the Securities and Exchange Board (Sebi) on Thursday said the new mechanism should be in place by August 1 for qualified stock brokers.

The Sebi circular states that the new provisions will come into force in a risk-based, staggered manner to ensure smooth adoption by stockbrokers. Brokerages will get sufficient time, based on their size, to make necessary changes, it added.

The new circular is an update of the circular issued on May 22, 2024, for stockbrokers, listing a range of issues like registration, supervision and oversight, dealings with their clients, default-related provisions and investor grievance redressal mechanisms. The latest circular asks stockbrokers to establish an institutional mechanism to prevent and detect fraud or market abuse, and invokes the provisions of Chapter IVA of the stock brokers amendment regulations, 2024.

The other directions in the new mechanisms include putting in place a system for surveillance of trading activities and internal controls; listing out obligations of the brokerages and their employees.

NSE caps SME IPO listing gains at 90% over issue price

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

In its attempt to curb volatility and malpractice, the National Stock Exchange (NSE) has placed an overall capping of 90% over the issue price for small and medium enterprises (SME) IPOs during the special pre-open session. This means the listing gain of a debutant stock will not exceed the 90% mark of the issue price.

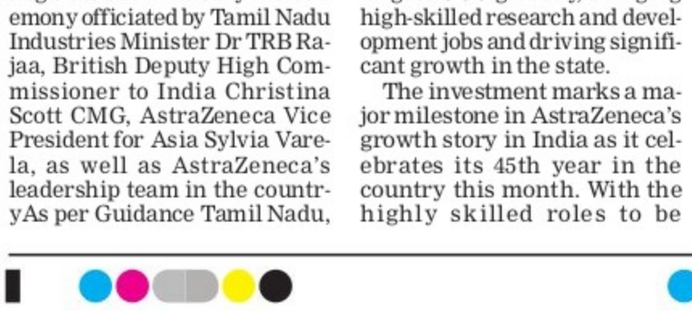
This action, according to NSE, has been taken to standardise the opening price discovery or equilibrium price across exchanges during the special pre-open session. The change, which is not applicable to mainboard IPOs, has been implemented with immediate effect. "The price control cap of 90 per cent shall be applicable only to the SME segment and not for Mainboard IPOs/Relisted Securities/Public Debt," NSE said in its circular issued on Thursday.

The curb on listing gain comes after India's capital market regulator Sebi previously said that it has found patterns of manipulation in the IPOs of small and medium enterprises. It has also warned about a froth building up in this space.

Manish Chowdhury, Head of Research at StoxBox said that the capping on SME price opening would bring some sanity to the frenzy in the SME IPO segment which has been driving all classes of investors.

"Considering the small size of the companies, limited information in public domain and higher risks associated with these issues, our sense is that the step of capping is a step in the right direction and would protect investors from chasing these IPOs for listing gains," he added. Supported by a strong bull run in the secondary market, India's IPO market has seen several stocks debuting with exorbitant listing gains.

For instance, Divine Power Energy entered the bourses on Tuesday with a listing gain on over 287% premium on the NSE Emerge platform. Kay Cee Energy recently debuted with a listing gain 343% over the IPO price. So far this year, about 100 SME IPOs have raised little Rs 3,100 crore. In 2023, a total of 182 had raised Rs 4,686 crore. Amit Goel, co-founder and chief global strategist at Pace 360 said the cap can help moderate price swings. He added that the investors who aim to buy IPO shares and then quickly resell them at a high opening price might find it more challenging with the new cap.



Mkt-makers should self-report misconduct: Sebi

BENN KOCHUVEEDAN @Mumbai

MARKETS watchdog Sebi has urged the market-makers to proactively report malpractices, saying there is an urgent need to have trust and integrity in markets so that investors have confidence in the market and the regulator.

Addressing portfolio managers, the Securities and Exchange Board (Sebi) chairperson Madhabi Puri Buch here on Thursday called up on industry stakeholders to proactively report any malpractices within their sectors. This, she emphasised, is crucial to maintain investor trust—a cornerstone for a growing market.

"Trust is the foundation of growth," Buch told a conference organised by the Association of the Portfolio Managers. "If the trust is belied, the edifice of the system will come down like a pack of cards. It is important that everyone, including the regulators, maintain this trust."

This regulatory tightening is part of Sebi's broader efforts to curb potential market manipulation and ensure transparent operations across the financial ecosystem. This call to action assumes importance given that the equity market has been on a song lately, with the Sensex crossing the 80,000-mark for the first time on July 3 in its fastest-ever 10,000-point rally in a just 58 sessions. Amid this surge, Sebi has been putting in place stricter steps to ensure market integrity, including stringent instructions against brokerages engaging with 'finfluencers' and individuals claiming to be investor educators or market experts.

Highlighting the critical role of trust from retail, institutional, and foreign investors in fostering market growth, Buch warned that "any erosion of trust due to industry mischief can lead to more stringent regulations and a potential collapse of the ecosystem."

To prevent such scenarios, Buch urged the industry to voluntarily report any unethical practices they notice. "Bring to our notice what mischief is going on in the market so as to avoid our exploding into the system and coming up with a heavy hand. Good players should come to us about the mischief in their own interest," she asserted.

She also urged non-members to join their respective industry lobbies to help ensure all voices are represented.

Demerger of Raymond's realty arm: Shareholders to get shares at 1:1 ratio

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

THE board of Raymond Limited, one of India's top textile companies, on Thursday approved the vertical demerger of its real estate business into its wholly owned subsidiary, Raymond Realty Limited (RRL). Upon completion of this demerger, Raymond Ltd and Raymond Realty Limited (RRL) will operate as separate listed entities.

As per the scheme of arrangement, each Raymond Ltd (RL) shareholder will receive 1 share of RRL for every 1 share held in Raymond Limited. The company will issue 6.65 crore shares of Raymond Realty having face value of Rs 10 per share. This demerger will now require approvals from the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT), shareholders and creditors of RL and other competent authorities. The shares will be listed on the BSE and the NSE.

The demerger plan aims to "exploit the growth potential of the real estate business and attract fresh set of investors / strategic partners to participate in the real estate business, it is proposed to consolidate the entire real estate business of the Group under one single entity," the company said in a filing to the BSE.

This strategy to demerge the Real Estate business into a separate company that will be listed through automatic route is another step to enhance the shareholder value

Gautam Singhania, Chairman & MD, Raymond

Raymond's realty division reported a revenue of Rs 1,593 crore (43% YoY growth) and EBITDA of Rs 370 crore in FY23-24. This segment accounted for 24.16% of RL's total turnover last fiscal.

"Having stated that now we have clear three vectors of growth at Raymond group i.e. Lifestyle, Real Estate and Engineering, this corporate action is in line with creating shareholder value creation. This strategy to demerge the Real Estate business into a separate company that will be listed through automatic route is another step to enhance the shareholder value," said Gautam Hari Singhania, Chairman & Managing Director, Raymond Limited.

The Mumbai-based group has already announced the demerger of its lifestyle business to Raymond Consumer Care (RCCL) to create a listed entity. Last year, the group had sold the consumer products business of RCCL to Godrej Consumer Products in an all-cash deal of ₹2,825 crore.

Regulatory fairness bedrock of eco progress: CJI

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Mumbai

THE judiciary and regulators have to ensure that protecting the economic and financial interests and delivering financial justice in a time-bound manner are as important as delivering social and political justice because financial and regulatory fairness are the bedrock of the economic progress of any nation and is also a key part of the rule of law, Chief Justice of India Dhananjaya Yeshwant Chandrachud has said.

Inaugurating the new Securities Appellate Tribunal (SAT) office complex here this morning, Chandrachud said, "a legal system that has adequate safeguards, fairness, and dispenses justice without arbitrariness, is integral to building a country's business and financial landscape and this one of the main reasons why the Supreme Court recently constituted a five-judge bench to see whether an unstamped arbitration agreement can be relooked at the section 11 stage itself and that too within a month, because in the financial and business world, even a month is too long a period".

"And we must send out this message across that any aberration happened in the past should be corrected at the earliest and with the greatest speed so that we help establish a stable regulatory environment in the country."

Chandrachud, who holds his court in a fully paperless manner, said virtual hearing is a matter of right for the petitioner and of lawyers and not a concession from the court/judges.

In this regard, he commended the SAT for holding virtual hearings since the pandemic. Since SAT has only one bench and, therefore, has national jurisdiction, it is all more important that this appellate body allows virtual participation of lawyers from across the country. This is more important as this it has only a single bench.

Emphasising the importance of the rule of law, the chief justice said, "We often consider the idea of rule of law is social and political justice. Way back in 2005, the World Bank has theorised that protecting the rule of law is intrinsically linked to ensuring better economic outcomes and financial advancement." Coming to the soaring market which has scaled past the 80,000 mount on Wednesday, he said for Sebi and SAT this also brings to the fore of the importance of timely regulation.

"The more the market indices surge, the greater will be the role of Sebi and SAT in protecting the rule of law," Chandrachud said.

'Virtual hearing right for petitioners and lawyers'

Chandrachud, who holds his court in paperless manner, said virtual hearing is a matter of right for the petitioner and of lawyers and not a concession from court/judges. In this regard, he commended the SAT for holding virtual hearings since pandemic. Since SAT has only one bench and, therefore, has national jurisdiction.

MUMB-HIGH: FUN IN MAXIMUM CITY

Dhoni led the victory parade in 2007 with Rohit being one of the youngest members; 17 years later, one of city's own repeats the feat

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

UNLIKE 2007 when the victorious India team led by MS Dhoni went to the Wankhede Stadium directly from the Mumbai Airport to celebrate the title triumph, the route for the victory parade on Thursday was minuscule.

If the team had travelled around 25km then, the distance from the National Centre for Performing Arts (NCPA) to Wankhede — the route of victory parade — was not even 2km. But it didn't matter as the same euphoria was on display with Rohit Sharma and Co driving down South Mumbai's Marine Drive boarding an open bus. Incidentally, Rohit was the only player to have witnessed the overwhelming reception 17 years ago albeit as one of the youngest members of the squad. This time around it was different with him being the leader of the pack.

While then Dhoni had famously said they had brought Mumbai to a standstill, the City of Dreams was once again brought to a screeching halt by one of their own. And fittingly enough, chants of "Mumbaicha Raja Kaun? Rohit Sharma" (Who's the King of Mumbai? Rohit Sharma) reverberated through the roads. Earlier, the victory parade got delayed as Team India reached Mumbai late. As the iconic venue was thrown open for fans, the stands were filled to the brim in no time with thousands of unfortunate fans stuck outside as the doors were close by 5 in the evening. Such was the enthusiasm that even intermittent rain and extreme humidity resulting out of it could not dampen the spirits of fans. The players too entertained the fans with their favourite dance moves.

Later, the BCCI president and secretary handed the Rs 125 crore cheque to the team during a small function organised to felicitate the players.

> This ground is really special. Came here as a kid and what I saw today I have never seen something like this. Seeing my son, I was emotional and I didn't have words. Told my wife that I wanted to see my son (see me playing). –Jasprit Bumrah

> I am going to miss this love. What I saw on streets tonight, I won't forget it. –Rahul Dravid

Injury blow for Hurkacz, Djokovic in third round

AFP @ London

POLAND'S Hubert Hurkacz was forced to quit his second-round match against Arthur Fils with a knee injury. Seventh-seeded Hurkacz, who made the semifinals in 2021 after ending the Wimbledon career of eight-time champ Roger Federer, hurt himself as he dived for a ball during the fourth set tie-break.

After limping back to his chair on Court Two, he then continued for two more points but called it quits to hand Fils a place in the last 32 of a Grand Slam for the first time. Fils had taken the first two sets 7-6 (2), 6-4. Hurkacz claimed the third 6-2 and had a set point in the fourth before his afternoon suffered a premature end.

Meanwhile, Novak Djokovic had a tight four-set win over Jacob Fearnley but the theme of the afternoon was the raft of five-setters. Grigor Dimitrov, Denis Shapovalov, Ben Shelton, Alexei Popyrin, Francisco Comesana and Lorenzo Musetti all prevailed after their matches went into overtime. Iga Swiatek also made her way into the third round, with a 6-4, 6-3 win over Petra Martic.

Select results (all Rd 2): Men: N Djokovic bt J Fearnley 6-3, 6-4, 5-7, 7-5; G Dimitrov bt S Juncheng 5-7, 6-7(4), 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.
Women: O Jabeur bt R Montgomery 6-1, 7-5, J Ostapenko bt D Snigur 6-3, 6-0.

BIG BOYS LOCK HORNS

SPAIN AND GERMANY WILL BATTLE OUT AGAINST EACH OTHER FOR A BERTH IN THE SEMIS OF ONGOING EUROS WHILE PORTUGAL TAKE ON FRANCE. A LOOK AT FRIDAY'S MATCHES...

SPAIN VS GERMANY | 9:30 PM

Germany's clash with Spain in Stuttgart pits the Euros' two best performing sides against one another at least one round earlier than fans would have liked. For both teams, youngsters like Lamine Yamal (Spain) and Jamal Musiala (Germany) have risen to the big stage so far with the experienced pros like Rodri (Spain) and Toni Kroos (Germany) offering perfect balance. This match has all the ingredients to be the contest of the tournament.

3 Jamal Musiala is the joint top-scorer with three strikes. Without a doubt a player to look out for on Friday.

PORTUGAL VS FRANCE 12:30 AM (IST SATURDAY)

Headline-makers will bill this contest as the showdown between Cristiano Ronaldo versus Kylian Mbappe. The latter looked up to Ronaldo before becoming a world-beater himself. However, both players have been average at best (for various reasons). With so much at stake, the primary focus will be on both the teams, who have punched well below their weights so far. France are yet to score from open play while Portugal, apart from their performance against Turkiye, have lacked the firepower in front of goal. Whichever team wins in Hamburg could potentially get that much-needed spark and go on to change the present narrative (surrounding them).

France have only lost one of their last 14 games against Portugal (W11, D2).

An impressive Venezuela can continue their dream run when they take on Canada in the quarterfinals of the Copa America. A look...

STURDY BACKLINE

Their defending was always going to be the key and so it has proved. They haven't conceded a goal in their last two group games, including a huge cleansheet over more favoured Mexico. At the other end, the evergreen Salomon Rondon has been an effective battering ram.

Venezuela had topped Group B with a 100 per cent record | AP

HIGH-ENERGY DOWN THE WINGS

Like Venezuela, Canada have also kept the backdoor shut, with two cleansheets in as many games. The thing that separates the two sides though is Canada's energy down the wings thanks to the likes of Alphonso Davies. • Saturday, 6.30 AM

Chennai's Hemalatha set for homecoming

GOMESH S / KALYANI MANGALE @ Chennai

DAYALAN Hemalatha is yet to play an international match at the MA Chidambaram Stadium, Chennai. In fact, when this iconic venue hosted India women prior to the recent Test against South Africa (2007), the city's very own cricketer was in school. Pursuing the game she loved as a passion and profession wasn't even in her wildest dreams. It all could change for her when India face South Africa in the first T20I at the venue on Friday.

Understandably, the 29-year-old's household in Nesapakkam is buzzing. After all, when the then 17-year-old told her family that she wanted to play cricket shortly after finishing high school, little did they imagine this day would come. At that point, she had never played leather ball cricket. All Hemalatha did through her school days was play cricket on the streets with the boys. So, when she tried to convince her family to allow her to participate in the U-19 selection trials, they were understandably hesitant. "She went with a tennis ball bat, not knowing the equipment required. And there a coach saw her bat and suggested her to join an academy. We don't even know who he was. We joined the SS Cricket Academy and that is where it all began," recalls P Karthick, one of Hemalatha's brothers.

From there, Hemalatha made rapid strides, but it was a hard toil. She used to wake up at 4.30 AM, take a bus for practice, come back at 9 AM, and then rest for a couple of hours. Later, she would go to the gym and skill training before returning home late in the evening. The next day, she would follow the same schedule. "Hema was determined at that age. She had decided this is what she is going to pursue. She joined college through sports quota and worked day in and out for this," says her mother D Jayanthi.

It was not just about the training though. Financially, too, it was not easy. Coming from a joint family, K Dhamodaran, the family elder and her father, K Dayalan's brother, was the go-to person for Hema and everyone else. Full story: newindianexpress.com

AMAZON VS FLIPKART

WHICH IS THE BETTER CHOICE TO BUY PERSONAL ELECTRONICS AND WHY?

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

IN the past decade, online shopping has become a significant part of Indian consumer behaviour, with electronics leading the charge. This category contributes over 50% of the gross merchandise value (GMV) for Indian marketplaces. A recent Techarch survey identified key factors influencing consumer trust: comprehensive product information, clear pricing, timely delivery, accurate order fulfillment, after-sales support, and clear return policies. This analysis compares information availability and immersive experiences offered by Amazon and Flipkart for smartphones, laptops, headphones, and cameras.

Smartphones

Smartphones are crucial in the personal electronics category, contributing more than 60% to the overall electronics GMV of marketplaces. Recognising the importance of this category, both Amazon and Flipkart ensure extensive and accurate information is available to potential buyers. According to TechArch, Amazon stands out with its clean interface and utilisation of multiple product images that enhance engagement and provide an immersive experience for buyers. For instance, Amazon showcases detailed images of smartphone camera setups and explains complex technologies like fast-charging mechanisms, aiding buyers in making informed decisions quickly.

Smart TVs

Smart TVs are another significant electronic device for individuals and households, bridging personal and consumer electronics categories. In India, while Smart TVs are commonly viewed as family devices, the trend towards multiple TV screens in homes is increasing. The rise of OTT platforms has also boosted personal content consumption on Smart TVs alongside traditional family viewing experiences. Comparing Amazon and Flipkart listings, Amazon offers more comprehensive information on Smart TVs, providing detailed descriptions of features and specifications. This detailed information not only boosts consumer confidence in their purchase decisions but also facilitates a smoother buying process. For example, Amazon's listings include exhaustive details for models such as the LG 80 cm (32 inches) HD Ready Smart LED TV M563B-PTC (Dark Iron Gray), as illustrated in the exhibit below.

TWS Earbuds

TWS Earbuds are a crowded smart device category with many domestic and global players. Despite their small size, they pack various technologies for enhanced experiences. First-time buyers or those upgrading seek detailed information on features, specifications, ANC (active noise cancellation), Dolby support, and more. Since over 90% of TWS sales are happening online, primarily through marketplaces, access to descriptive product information is crucial. Techarch's comparison shows Amazon leads Flipkart in providing detailed information, essential for informed purchasing decisions.

In its comparative analysis, Techarch finds that Amazon emerges as the platform offering deeper and more detailed information about the studied personal electronics products. By proactively providing exhaustive information, Amazon not only ensures that the buying process is seamless but also accelerates the entire purchasing process, helping consumers make quicker, informed decisions.
